

Amazing Women:

A Workshop Celebrating Women (and raising money for an important cause)

Note from Lisa:

I am so excited about "Amazing Women - A Class Celebrating Women (and raising money for an important cause)". This class will be full of ideas and suggestions for making a mini book that honors one or many of the influential women in your life.

During this self-paced class, I present many different inspirational creations from talented scrapbookers. Please pick and choose the ideas that speak to your inner artist! Since you will see many different mini books, the supply list is really just a list of suggested items that you may wish to consider. You probably have most things on hand already. I'm all about using the supplies that are overflowing from my "scrap closet". After all, they are just hanging out waiting to be loved!

So, use what you've got - or use this class as an excuse to buy the latest patterned paper or embellishment you've been dying to get your hands on!

SUPPLY LIST

This class is about taking the ideas that speak to you then using them to adapt a Pink Ribbon MyBook Journal into something that celebrates the Amazing Women in your life in a style that's all your own.

This list focuses more on general product categories than on specific products and brands. I encourage you to use what you love!

- basic tool kit (to purchase items like these click here).
- Pink Ribbon MyBook Adaptable Journal
The Pink Ribbon MyBook Journal is available in 4"x6" or 6"x8" (size used in the class handout), available at PerAnnum.com. You can save 10% and get free shipping on your entire order by using coupon code provided in the classroom. PerAnnum will donate 10% of the Pink Ribbon MyBook purchase to Breast Cancer related charities.
- photos. Think about women to whom you'd like to pay tribute in your MyBook. Take note of which pictures you have and which you'll need to get. There are twelve photo pockets spaced throughout the book, so you'll probably want a picture for each section of the book - but you may always create a layout without pictures, too. Depending on which design ideas you end up using, you may creatively use many more photos than twelve.
- tab punch - I used one of the McGill Tab Punches
- photo editing software (I use Photoshop CS and Photoshop Elements)
- ribbon. I love ribbon! Maybe that's why I love finding new places and ways to use it. Your journal includes about 15" of pink grosgrain ribbon. If you want alternative or additional ribbons, pick out a few or favorites (remembering that ribbon has both bookmark and embellishment potential).
- adhesives. I used Making Memories Ribbon Glue and Beacon Adhesives Flip Flop Glue.
- rub-ons and stickers: alphabets, flourishes, quotes, dimensional stickers, you name it!

- embellishments: flat embellishments are good - buttons, charms, rhinestones, beads, tags, fabric or paper flowers, etc.
- mini brads and/or decorative safety pins are great for attaching things like ribbons and charms
- coordinating cardstock and patterned papers
- EK Success Zig Photo Signature Pens and other favorite writing tools
- chipboard letters, frames

I can't wait to check out the classroom gallery to see what you end up using and how you used it!

See you in class!
